FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JANUARY 31, 2021

Gospel

Mark 1:21-28

Then they came to Capernaum, and on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught.
The people were astonished at his teaching,
for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.
In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit;
he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?
Have you come to destroy us?
I know who you are—the Holy One of God!"
Jesus rebuked him and said,
"Quiet! Come out of him!"
The unclean spirit convulsed him and with a loud cry came out of him.

All were amazed and asked one another,
"What is this?
A new teaching with authority.
He commands even the unclean spirits
and they obey him."
His fame spread everywhere throughout the whole region of Galilee.

Opening Prayer

Grant us, Lord our God,
that we may honor you with all our mind,
and love everyone in truth of heart.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Reflecting on Living the Gospel

It was the encounter with truth that led the crowds of ordinary people in Galilee, Judea, and elsewhere, to throng around the teacher Jesus; they responded as people hungry to learn the deepest reality about God and themselves. So, “on the sabbath Jesus entered the synagogue and taught. The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.” The religious experts, the scribes, are mentioned, though it seems they are not present, as a contrast to Jesus’s authority. Perhaps the experts hung back, wary of how Jesus’s teaching might affect their livelihood or authority, or because they disagreed that Jesus’s authority was grounded in the Scriptures or God.

Yet, Jesus’s final act in the Capernaum synagogue is the demonstration of the divine ground of his teaching authority, for “in their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, ‘What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!’” Jesus healed the man of the unclean spirit, and the people were again “amazed,” referring to this action of Jesus as a “teaching”: “[They] asked one another, ‘What is this? A new teaching with authority.’” It is God’s presence and power that is the lesson not only to learn but to encounter.

It is necessary to have teachers in all areas of knowledge, and this includes theology and biblical studies. Expertise and properly ordered authority are essential for all fields. But ultimately we are all students of the one teacher, whose authority is ordered to our salvation and joy. From this school we never graduate; this teacher is always guiding us. This education is perfected for our final purpose: to know God.

Closing Prayer

God of Hosts, we struggle to know who you are, for you are paradox and mystery. You, whom the universe cannot encompass, send your son to dwell in our hearts. May we, in faith, be always able to say to him that we know who you are—the Holy One of God! Amen.

For Reflection:

- In the gospel we hear that the people of Capernaum “were astonished” at Jesus’s teaching. What words of Jesus in the gospels do you find astonishing or even shocking?

Suggestions for group and individual use:

1. Pray aloud the “Opening Prayer” (in The Roman Missal called the “collect”).
2. One person read aloud the gospel.
3. Each read prayerfully “Reflecting on Living the Gospel” and spend some time in personal prayer.
4. Share together responses to “For Reflection.”
5. Pray the “Closing Prayer.”

Bread Report from Kathy Texeira ~

We had a great start to 2021! With only 12 volunteers we managed to bake 465 loaves of sweet bread. Our Net Profit: $2,762.32.

We keep in our prayers all those who were ill and could not make it this month. May God embrace them with his healing hand.

I am also asking for a volunteer to help from 6:30am-1:00pm on bread days. This person would be responsible for distributing the orders and collecting the monies, also with helping carry orders to people's cars. This person would be relieving me when I go to work. I will need someone by March. Please call me if you have any questions or concerns at 264-6011.

Our next bread day is Tuesday, February 16, 2021. Thank you everyone for your continued support!

It's time for Souper Bowl of Caring sponsored by our youth next weekend. This year's proceeds will be given to the Maui Food Bank to replenish and stock their shelves for those in need. Bring your donations to fill the bowls and pots as you leave mass next weekend.

Have a Blessed Week!
